ANNOUNCEMENTS

Musical Service.
The service at the Central Baptist church will be one of peculiar interest next Sunday evening. The women's chorus of the Norwich Musical Association will render the following programs of music:
Hearts That Love Thee,
The Angel,
Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning,
A Little Town of Bethlehem,
Father and Son Sunday will be observed and seats will be reserved for Fathers and Sons. The subject of the sermon will be "Life an Adventure."

Bowling Avenue Residence Sold.
Mrs. Harold H. Stone and Dr. Quinn have purchased through the agency of Francis D. Donohue the residence of Alderman M. C. Higgins, No. 42 Bowwell avenue. It is a six-room house, modern in every detail. The house was designed and erected by the late Michael McQuirk about 25 years ago.

BREED THEATRE.
Harold Lockwood in "The Avenging Trail," a Striking Story of Adventure, Set in the Northern Lumber Camps, Featured Today and Saturday.

Real settings and background are provided for Harold Lockwood in his new starring vehicle, "The Avenging Trail," the photograph version of Henry Owen's novel of the lumber country in the North, "Gaston Olat," which is the feature at the Breed theatre today and Saturday. The outdoor scenes were played with the ground covered with snow and were obtained in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. The production of the lumbering from the cutting of the timber until the time it is loaded on flat cars and the younger generation is shown in the picture and provides an interesting sidelight to the dramatic action of the story, which, in itself, is considered one of the most powerful ever offered by Mr. Lockwood during his starring career. Other pictures on the bill include the Heart-Pathe news and a Christie comedy.

"OH BOY!"

At the Davis Theatre Tonight - Certain at 7:45 p. m. Prompt.

Not since the days of "Flora" has there been a more successful play than the one which has caught the public fancy as an instantaneous and as successful as "Oh, Boy!" which comes to the Davis theatre tonight.

This fact is emphasized by the records established in other cities. "Oh, Boy!" is now playing its second season in New York and in its sixth month of popularity in Chicago. The company which will present this Comstock-Entertainment production comes direct from five months in Boston and is the same big cast and production. Jerome Kern's fascinating music and a host of musical numbers by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse have put "Oh, Boy!" in a position that would be difficult to equal. The production of the play is a masterpiece and in excellent taste and the entire performance is made up of a spirit of north and enthusiasm that is decidedly refreshing.

AUDITORIUM.

To an audience that taxed the capacity of this theatre, the Black and White Musical Revue again presented that sure fire musical success, "The Enchanted Island." That this company is creating a sensation, goes without saying. Those that witnessed these performances were agreeably surprised, expecting to see a musical "flop," and instead they were treated to a first class production, comparing and far surpassing many of the so-called high priced one night road shows that charge many times the price of admission.

The scenic equipment carried by this company combining with clean and wholesome comedy, good singing and wardrobe of the latest creation, places this production in a class with many Broadway successes.

Today this company will offer an entire change of programme, entitled, "A Trip on the Good Ship Homocynon." This offering will be entirely different from the rest, the scenes being laid aboard a ship giving the comedians plenty of scope to display their talents as laugh getters. There will be three full length scenes Saturday, matinee, 2:15 p. m., evening, 8:45 and 8:20 p. m., so be sure and see this company as this will be your last opportunity for this season.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY
Miss Florence W. Kenyon spent last week visiting Putnam friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Britton and daughter have been in Brooklyn, N. Y. the past week. Allen W. Kenyon has been in charge of their store during their absence.

The auction Saturday at the Barrett place was largely attended. Harold and Everett Barrett have gone to Springfield, Mass., to live with their uncle, Merrick Barrett.

Fred Belcher, who lived with his sister, the late Mrs. Cora Barrett, has come to Stamford to make his home with his father.

Stephen H. Brockway of Remond depot, Camp Denney, was at home on a 48-hour furlough last week.

A ballot of trade unionists in Jacksonville connected with the building trade has resulted in an overwhelming majority in favor of refusing to work with non-unionists after January 1.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Madison.—Considerable open water is visible in the sound, yet the weather doesn't get warm enough to carry away the ice very fast.

Naugatuck.—Grover's school, Naugatuck, has had to close this week because the town can find no responsible man who will act as janitor.

Tolland.—Miss Florence Adams of Warren, Mass., is substituting as clerk at the Tolland bank while Miss Bether Blankenburg is taking a week's vacation.

East Hartford.—George O. J. Dempsey, principal of the Second North school, announces that pupils in the school have taken their stamps amounting to $210.40.

Norwalk.—Fifteen dentists were present at the meeting held in the office of Dr. W. L. Wood, South Norwalk, the other night. Root canal, gold inlay and removable crown and bridge work was discussed.

New Haven.—For charging interest at the rate of 240 per cent. for a month's loan of $15, Louis Cadaret, manager of a loan office, was sentenced to jail for 60 days and fined $200. An appeal was taken.

Greenwich.—Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Duncombe have come to Greenwich, where they are for a time at The Maple, having closed their home in Prospect street, New Haven. They expect to go later to Hot Springs, Va.

Norwalk.—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jessup and son, Clinton P., sailed on the steamer Mohawk of the Clyde line at noon today for Daytona, Fla., where they will spend a number of weeks. Mr. Jessup has already shipped his new car to Daytona.

Clinton.—Mr. and Mrs. S. Burdett Reade attended the wedding of Miss Marcia Booth and Charles A. Post in Derby last Thursday. Mr. Post is the son of the late Ezra Post, is a graduate of Morgan school, 1906, and is a teller of the National bank of Derby.

Hartford.—Sufficient use of fuel for heating the Hartford High school building today (Friday) and Saturday for the scheduled meeting of the Connecticut State Teachers' association was authorized yesterday by Thomas W. Russell, United States fuel administrator for Connecticut.

Waterbury.—William D. Shea has been elected to the position of supervisor of this city's scientific work of farming. Mr. Shea, who was supervisor of city gardens during the gardening campaign, succeeded to the position of Commissioner last year, was recently appointed teacher of agriculture in the public schools. His work is to be conducted during the summer months, including the children of the city.

Meriden.—Merchants representing various lines of business met in the Chamber of Commerce office recently to take action on an educational campaign on the war economy slogan "carry packages home." It was decided to inaugurate the campaign by taking out full page advertisements in the local newspapers. These advertisements urged the general public to reduce the great amount of deliveries by taking home small packages. The campaign is along lines being followed all over the country and is in the interest of war economy.

Ansonia.—Walter F. Stiles and Joseph A. Cline, two officers of the state police, spent a good part of Wednesday engaged in investigating the deliveries of coal by some of the coal dealers. Just how much work was done by the state policemen was not announced, but Wednesday night, upon evidence which was said to be submitted by them to Prosecuting Attorney A. R. McMahon, a warrant was issued for the apprehension of Herbert L. Bristol, who is alleged to be a coal dealer. The warrant alleges that Bristol, who is a member of the Bristol Coal company, had held coal at short weight. It was also alleged that one of the wagons of Michael Yulkin, another coal dealer, was held up by the police and when the contents of the cart were weighed it was larger than which was represented on the ticket.
